SUFFRAGE RATIFICATION CERTIFIED TO COLBY

SUFFS SCORE ON ANTIS IN LEGAL BATTLE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 24.—Frank M. Thompson, attorney general of Tennessee, announced today that Governor A. H. Roberts at 10:20 o'clock this morning, certified Tennessee's ratification of the suffrage amendment, sending the certification to Secretary of State Colby by mail.

The announcement was made after (Chief Justice) Landon of the state supreme court on petition of the attorney general had granted a writ of certiorari and superceded virtually taking proceedings in the injunction case brought to prevent certification out of the hands of Judge Landon in the county chancery court. Justice Landon ordered all records in the case before the supreme court for review.

Attorney General Thompson declared the action of Justice Landon created the injunction granted by the lower court and it was on this express opinion that the governor certified ratification to Washington.

Argument by the attorney general on this motion that the supreme court take jurisdiction was made before Justice Landon last night at the justice's home. Opponents of ratification charge that the proceedings violate the rules of the supreme court in that the other party was not notified that the hearing was to be held.

LISTED AS INDEPENDENTS
SACRAMENTO, CALIF., August 24.—Presidential electors of the National Farmer-Labor, or third party, cannot be listed under their official party designation on the California presidential ballot in November, Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan announced today. Any farmer-labor electors, he said, will have to be listed under the "independent" designation.

"Uncle John" Shell in an airplane.

"Uncle John" Shell of Greasy Creek, Ky., who was born more than a year before George Washington was inaugurated president of the United States, is hale and hearty still and enjoys riding around in automobiles and airplanes. He will celebrate his 132 birthday on Sept. 3.

Would Recall All Japs In United States

HONOLULU, August 24.—Recalling by the Japanese government of all Japanese who have emigrated to the United States has been suggested by prominent citizens of Tokyo, as a means of solving the Japanese problem in America, says a Tokyo cablegram to Nippon Jiji, Japanese language newspaper here. The cablegram adds that the Tokyo press is supporting the proposal.

AMERICAN NATION SHOULD GET AWAY FROM "ONE LEAD" ACTIVITIES, SEN. HARDING TELLS THEATRICAL FOLKS

MARION, O., August 24.—A plea that the nation get away from "one lead" activities so that each citizen can play his part in the development of American Democracy, was made today by Senator Harding in an address here to a delegation of actors and actresses representing the Harding and Coolidge Theatrical League.

The senator also spoke for Americanism, and deprecated any tendency of Americans to regard themselves as "citizens of the world," adding that he personally was "not so universal."

The visit of the delegation occupied the better part of the morning's day, but during the morning he held a long conference with Charles Evans Hughes, who was the Republican presidential candidate four years ago, on various issues and policies of the campaign.

Mr. Hughes arrived early and breakfasted at the Harding home.

Colonel George Harney, the New York color was present at the conference that followed.

In his speech to the theatrical delegation, Senator Harding declared the standards of the American stage should be the highest in the world. He also paid a tribute to the work of moving picture producers, saying that there was "no single avenue for the dissemination of information equal to that of moving picture."

Contractors Government And Plays
"I have been thinking lately," he continued, "that there is a great likeness between political life under popular government and many of our most successful productions on the stage. There are many plays especially written for people stars and their presentation has depended largely on the work of portraying one person. There is, of course, a fascination in the one lead drama, but if the star should be disappointing, and if the star should be disappointing for any reason, there is inevitable disappointment. I think it is a very practical thing to suggest that our American popular government (Continued on Page Six)

Anything So It Has A Good Kick

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 24.—Police Prosecutor John R. King's table in municipal court here yesterday morning was a combination of all the substitutes for liquor that have been discovered since the state went dry. The table was decorated with Jamaica ginger, hair tonic, toilet lotions, demerol and medicated alcohol, bitters, lemon extract and liquids that the owners themselves were unable to name.

Americans And British Are Held Captive

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 23.—Pedro Zamora, the bandit chief, whose men carried off a number of captives, including several American and British subjects from the town of Cuale, state of Jalisco, on August 20, is being closely pursued by government troops, said General Eduardo C. Garza, chief of staff at the war department tonight.

He added the bandit's followers were rapidly deserting and that "by the end of the month not more than 15 or 20 would remain of the band."

Six Americans who were held by Zamora have been released, but there are several more still in his hands, and at least two British subjects are being held for ransom. It is possible the list of Americans and British captives is as yet incomplete.

The war office has heard nothing of the progress of the force of 5,000 troops sent into the state of Jalisco on August 16, to round up the Zamora band.

Friends of the American and British captives, knowing Zamora's reputation for ruthlessness, fear he may kill his prisoners, if he is closely pressed. They have been working for the past couple of days in raising money with which to ransom the captives.

Selection Of Women Chief Business

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 24.—Selection of Ohio women for representation on the Democratic state executive committee will be the chief business to be transacted tomorrow when the committee meets. Chairman W. W. Durlin of Kewanee was unable to say today how many women will be named for committee places, but indicated that liberal representation will be given. The meeting is called for 2 p. m.

Given Another Kick

TOLEDO, O., August 24.—Toledo's Municipal Football League, the street car system, was given another drop kick today when promoters of the municipal ownership idea began laying plans to submit the question to a vote of the people at the November election.

Sugar Speculators Caught In Crash; Ten Cent Sugar Is Now Predicted

Third And Fourth Soviet Armies Are Trapped By Poles

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Official dispatches from Warsaw say the Poles have captured 65,000 prisoners, 200 guns and 1,000 machine guns.

BERLIN, Aug. 24.—The German border troops are calling for reinforcements as they are unable to control the increasing tide of Russian Soviet soldiers who are crossing the frontier and expressing the desire to be interned, according to a dispatch from Allenstein, East Prussia, today. Among the troops escaping into Germany are many Chinese and Circassians, the dispatch says.

WARSAW, August 24.—The capture of Przasnysz, 60 miles north of Warsaw and Mlawa, on the Polish frontier 75 miles northwest of the capital is reported in the Polish official statement issued last night. The bulk of the fourth Soviet army and the entire third cavalry corps have been surrounded by the Poles, the statement says.

The communication reads:

"We have taken Przasnysz and Mlawa, comprising divisions of the 15th Soviet army which is covering the retreat. We have surrounded the bulk of the fourth army and the whole of the third cavalry corps. Our losses are enormous and our prisoners very numerous."

"We have also taken Seibau, Zambror and Mazowieck (to the southwest of Lomza)."

Britain "Calls" Moscow
LONDON, August 24.—Arthur J. Balfour, lord resident of the council, on behalf of Premier Lloyd George last night sent to Leo Kamenetz, Russian Soviet representative here, a copy of the communiqué issued in Lucerne as a result of the conference of Premier Lloyd George and Gollithi.

Mr. Balfour points out that, according to the latest information, the Bolshevik terms to Poland, fundamentally contradict those Kamenetz communicated to Great Britain recently. Mr. Balfour asked if this information was correct, and if so, whether the Bolsheviks intended to adhere to the new terms.

An answer by Friday evening at the latest was asked for by Mr. Balfour, who cited the urgency of the matter and said that on the answer to these questions depended the future policy of Great Britain.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 24.—Admiral received today from President Harding a letter from President Harding, and issued a proclamation calling upon the German population to take up arms against Poland.

"Armed bands of Germans," the admiral also said, "have attacked the French troops in Upper Silesia, and have compelled them to leave the city. The French are preparing to defend themselves while awaiting orders. The Germans set fire to the offices of the inter-allied commission and have tortured many Poles."

"Poles from Upper Silesia are fleeing and are crowding the city. Some are asking help. The inter-allied authorities are manifesting new energy." (Continued on Page Six)

Hughes May Not Get Back On Ticket

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 24.—Kent W. Hughes, Ohio, who was nominated on the Democratic ticket for judge of the supreme court, last term, and resigned from the ticket three days afterwards, may not be able to withdraw his resignation, as has been hinted by some Democrats.

If he does decide he wants to run, and cannot recall his withdrawal, the only way he could get in the ticket may be appointment by the Democratic state central committee.

According to Secretary of State Smith today, president has been in rulings that a candidate may not recall his withdrawal from the ticket after he has filed a withdrawal with the secretary of state as Hughes has done.

There has been quite a little talk here among Democrats of naming Hughes to take his place on the ticket.

Cox Charge Of 15 Million G. O. P. Slush Fund May Alter Face Of Campaign

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 24.—Charges by Governor Cox of the intention to raise a $15,000,000 Republican campaign fund may shift the issues and alter the entire face of the campaign. Should the Democratic nominees fail to prove these charges, they will be a boomerang against him. On the other hand, should he be able to present convincing evidence of a Republican financial scheme of such stupendous proportions, the incident is fully expected here to be the sensation of the campaign.

Curiously, of course, has been raised here to the breaking point over the proofs that Governor Cox must have to back up his charges, but administration officials do not seem to be in on the secret. The extent of their information appears to be in connection only with the book known as "Republicanism in 1920," which is being published by William Barnes through his newspaper plant, the Albany (N. Y.) Journal, subscriptions to which ran far above the $1,000 limit for campaign subscriptions set by the Republican managers. The national Republican Committee has denied official connection with the book, although Senator Harding and others have endorsed the doctrine and the enterprise. (Continued on Page Six)

RIOTING IN BELFAST

BELFAST, August 24.—Rioting was renewed here last night, the most menacing disorder being a collision between the Catholics and Sinn Féiners to Billy Macarrett, on the east side of the River Lagan. Shortly after eight o'clock the opposing crowds met in Doyson Street, Kilmarren street, where shooting and stone throwing occurred. The police eventually succeeded in dispersing the rioters by a baton charge.

Police forces, who were later reinforced by soldiers, also dispersed crowds which attacked two ships in Montrose street.

Burn Nationalists Property As Murder Reprisal

LISBURN, Ireland, Aug. 24.—The burning of Nationalist property here continued until after last midnight. Among the buildings destroyed was the Catholic parochial hall.

Virtually all Nationalists have left town in face of the loyalist reprisals for the murder of Police Inspector Swaney Sunday. As the reprisals proceeded last night every house still occupied, with the exception of the one in which lay the body of Inspector Swaney, flew the union jack, ward having gone forth that failure to exhibit the flag would be taken as evidence of illegality.

MEADON TO PRESIDE NEW YORK, 24.—William G. Meadon, ex-secretary of the treasury, will preside at the luncheon to James M. Cox, Democratic presidential nominee, here next Saturday. It was announced today. Mr. Meadon will make a short address introducing Governor Cox.

Cox To Leave On Four-State Speaking Tour

DAYTON, O., Aug. 24.—Governor Cox today closed up his affairs here for his departure tonight on another speaking tour which will take him into four states, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and New York, and which is expected to intensify the controversy over his recent charges that a $15,000,000 "slush fund" was being raised for the Republican campaign.

The governor will speak tomorrow afternoon at Princeton, Ind., and in the evening at Evansville, Ind., but he is not expected to present evidence to substantiate his charges until later during his trip. He will speak Thursday night at Pittsburgh; Friday at New Haven; and Saturday at New York. The questions of contributions, however, is expected to figure largely in his two addresses tomorrow as well as later speeches.

Rumanian Prince Is Sightseeing In N. Y.

NEW YORK, August 24.—Prince Carol of Rumania, next sightseeing here today. Although it was announced yesterday that he would remain in America, he has already at several receptions in his honor, and elaborate plans have been made to entertain him further before his departure for England Saturday. Everywhere on his tour of the city his popularity quickly became known to the throngs in the streets.

Water Thrown On Inmates To Balk Flames

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Eight persons were injured in a fire which trapped more than a score of families in a five story East Side tenement house early today, only quick work by firemen and police prevented a heavy loss of life as the flames swept the building like a whirlwind.

Two men were seriously injured when the flames forced them to leap from a third floor window. The heat was so intense that firemen played streams of water on men, women and children as they crowded the fire escapes to keep them from being burned to death while awaiting rescue.

Safe Raised From Canal

JUNEAU, ALASKA, August 24.—The purse's safe, raised by divers from the wreck of the steamer Princess Sophia, which sank in the Lynn Canal in October, 1918, is here today awaiting examination by officers of the company which operated the steamer. More than 200 letters were lost in the sinking of the Princess Sophia. The safe is believed to contain a considerable sum.

Orangemen In U. S. In Session

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The supreme grand lodge of the United States of the First Orange Institution opened its first convention in four years today with delegates from every state present.

"We Orangemen here in the United States hold that the Sinn Féin movement is purely a democratic concern of the British empire and that the United States has no more right to interfere than the British empire would have mixing in our relations with the Philippine Islands," said George T. Lemmon, New York, secretary, who has just returned from the international meeting at Belfast, Ireland, where the local orange lodges expressed their opposition to the Sinn Féin movement in Ireland and in favor of a union with England.

Given Another Kick

TOLEDO, O., August 24.—Toledo's Municipal Football League, the street car system, was given another drop kick today when promoters of the municipal ownership idea began laying plans to submit the question to a vote of the people at the November election.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Sugar really will be rewarded later by the tall prices have not touched bottom, but are certain to drop to lower levels, with the market heavily glutted with stocks far beyond the normal demand, it was announced at the department of justice today. Ignoring appeals by refiners and sugar wholesale jobbers for the department's intervention to stop a further slump in prices officials said no possible action could be taken to relieve sugar dealers who have over-bought and are now losing heavily.

"Speculators and others caught in this crash must bear the losses resulting from their speculative activities," said Assistant Attorney General John Crosby, in charge of profiteering prosecutions.

Speculators Are Yelling
"Speculators" who bought at a high price expecting still higher prices to prevail, are the only ones yelling for our help," Crosby said. "We note the consumers are not doing any kicking."

The department of justice today advised consumers against hoarding of sugar, or attempts to overstock at the present prices. "Those who buy sparingly to meet their usual needs probably will be rewarded later by the falling prices," it was stated.

Officials considered it significant that Cuban raw sugars, for delivery in January and succeeding months, are being quoted at approximately 12 cents a pound.

Government commercial experts studying the sugar drop, now are convinced that the sugar shortage scare created several months ago was largely artificial and that prices reached unprecedented levels through the manipulation of the speculative element.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 24.—"Propaganda designed to save the hides of big holders of sugar who face financial losses as a result of the decline in price of sugar" is the language in which Maurice Langan, secretary of the Ohio fair price commission characterized statements purporting to come from certain Columbus jobbers advertising the public to buy sugar now before the price goes back up.

"Our advice and the advice that is being given out all over the country is for housewives to buy no more sugar than they need," said Langan. "There is every thing to indicate that the price of sugar will continue to decline. Some are predicting that the price will be 10 cents by New Year's." (Continued on Page Six)

Cox Says He Will Prove His Charges Against Republicans

DAYTON, O., August 24.—Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, today gave out a statement declaring that he would "prove" his charges regarding the magnitude of the Republican campaign funds. He stated that he would present his information in his address next Thursday night at Pittsburgh.

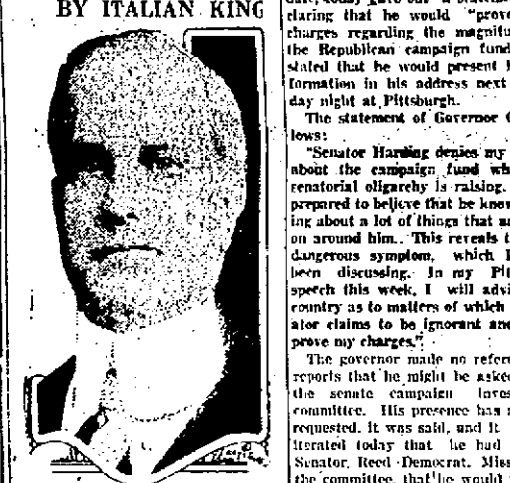

The statement of Governor Cox follows:

"Senator Harding denies my charges about the campaign fund which the senatorial oligarchy is raising. I am prepared to believe that he knows nothing about a lot of things that are going on around him. This reveals the very dangerous symptom, which I have been discussing. In my Pittsburgh speech this week, I will advise the country as to matters of which the senator claims to be ignorant and I will prove my charges."

The governor made no reference to reports that he might be asked before the senate campaign investigating committee. His presence has not been requested, it was said, and it was reiterated today that he had advised Senator Reed Democrat, Missouri, of the committee, that he would transmit information in time for the committee meeting next Monday.

Several long distance telephone conferences were held today by the governor with party leaders regarding assembling of information relating to Republican financing.

Much of the information was said to relate to the Ohio campaign.

William Guggenheim, the well-known American capitalist and expert on economic subjects, was recently knighted by the King of Italy for services rendered to the crown. For many years he was manager of the Guggenheim mining interests in Mexico. His home is in Philadelphia.

Hope Cheap Sugar Will Be Reality

The Times Noon Extra caused housewives in Portsmouth to smile expansively today when they learned through its telegraphic columns that 10 cent sugar was predicted by New Year's.

Anticipating a sharp decline in the price hundreds of them have only a hand-to-mouth supply and anxiously await the opportunity to buy sugar at much cheaper prices.

Of course many families have a liberal supply of sugar on hand and will lose considerable money if the 10 cent prediction is realized, but they do not care for this so long as sugar takes a drop.

One prominent official said today that he just recently purchased 200 pounds at 29 cents, after being given a sure tip that sugar would go to 40 cents.

"I am willing to stand my loss just to see it take a drop," said he. Four other men standing near the official chimed in with the same sentiment.

"We, too, are stuck, but if sugar is coming down, let her come. We will not kick."

And so it was all over town. The news that sugar may reach 10 cents by New Year's was welcome news to the housewives of Portsmouth, who long for the days when the sugar bins will be brimming over and all kinds of fruit can be canned without having to pay an almost prohibitive price for it.

"I ended corns forever in this scientific way"

Millions have said that about Blue-jay. Others tried it and told others the same story. So the use has spread, until corn troubles have largely disappeared.

If you have a corn you can settle it tonight. And find the way to end every corn.

Apply liquid Blue-jay or a Blue-jay plaster. The pain will stop.

Soon the whole corn will loosen and come out.

Think what folly it is to keep corns, to part or pad them, or to use the old harsh treatments.

Here is the new-day way, gentle, sure and scientific. It was created by a noted chemist in this world-famed laboratory.

It is ending millions of corns by a touch. The relief is quick, and it ends them completely.

Try it tonight. Corns are utterly needless, and this is the time to prove it.

VICTIM OF RIVAL'S BULLETS WANTS TO "ATTEND TO GUN USER" HIMSELF

Ned Thornton, 20, unmarried, of some, who was probably fatally injured by shots fired by Edward Moore, 27, single, at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, has requested that authorities do not pursue his assailant, who disappeared after the shooting.

Thornton says:

"I want to attend to Moore myself and don't want the authorities mixing in. I'll see to him as soon as I get it."

Moore escaped as soon as he shot five times at Thornton, on the highway, three miles east of Boone. Three of the bullets took effect, and one of them is expected to prove fatal. It is believed in the central part of his body which is causing him to have hemorrhages several times a day, resulting in great loss of blood. The other two bullets have not yet been extracted from the muscles of Thornton's right thigh.

Moore has been going with the 16-year old daughter of a well known family in Boone. A few weeks ago he was assaulted by another young man of the village who wished to gain the affections of the young woman. Jealousy is the cause of his sudden attack on young Thornton.

Disregarding Thornton's statement that he would refuse to appear against Moore, Sheriff Pettit of West Union, Adams county is making a determined search for him. Moore escaped after the shooting and has not been seen since.

Testimonials of the New Drugless Healer

Testimonial of Frank Casteel

1316 Summit Street,
Portsmouth, Ohio.

On August 11 I came to Dr. Adams in Masonic Temple a nervous wreck, could not sleep or do anything but wonder and grieve over my condition. I had stomach trouble so bad that everything I ate would lay in my stomach, sour and would feel like a big hard lump of stone and would pain me something fierce. My bowels would not act without taking claps and I had rheumatism so bad in my lower limbs that I could hardly get around and severe headache all the time. I have taken one course of Dr. Adams' wonderful nature treatments and am sound and well. I would advise any one afflicted to take some of these.

Yours truly,
Frank Casteel, 1316 Summit St.,
Portsmouth, Ohio.

Testimonial of W. W. Frazier

Portsmouth, Ohio.

I have had rheumatism for a long time and have tried everything I could think of but never got any relief until I found Dr. Adams in the Masonic Temple who gave me great relief the first treatment. I have taken 6 treatments and I hardly know I ever had anything the matter with me. I would advise any sufferer or afflicted person to consult this healer.

Yours truly,
W. W. FRAZIER,

IRONTON EDITOR SUES RIVALS FOR $10,000

As the result of the bitter personal newspaper fight in which the Ironton, Irontonian and the Ironton News has indulged in for some time past, Harry M. Paul, editor of the Irontonian, has sued the Collett Bros., editors of the News, for $10,000 damages. The Ironton Register has the following concerning the suit:

"Damages in amount of $10,000 is asked by H. M. Paul, editor of the Morning Irontonian, in a suit against Harry L. Collett and Charles L. Collett, individually and as partners under the name of Collett Bros. The suit was filed Monday afternoon by plaintiff's attorneys, Johnson and Jones.

Plaintiff represents that the defendants compose the firm of Collett Bros. and are partners and publishers of a newspaper known as 'The Ironton News.' Plaintiff further represents that he has been a resident practically all his life and has held different public positions, among them Clerk of the City Council for a number of years, that on or about August 17, 1920, the defendant, intending to defame and libel plaintiff and with intent to injure plaintiff in his good name and reputation for honesty, integrity and as a good citizen and to disgrace plaintiff and to bring him into ridicule and contempt of all good people, maliciously composed, wrote, printed, published and circulated the false and malicious matter in defendant's newspaper, 'The Ironton News,' which said paper has a general circulation among the inhabitants of the city of Ironton, county of Lawrence, and elsewhere unknown to plaintiff.

One of the matters which the plaintiff claims to be false and libelous, was a paragraph in the Ironton News, which follows:

"No one about the police department knows about the $90 disappearing, as referred to editorially by Shrimp Paul. Maybe Shrimp got it himself, since he seems to be the only one who knows about it as just records of the state examiner's department show that he has a warrant for taking money."

Meaning that plaintiff, while clerk of council unlawfully and wrongfully took and appropriated to his own use money of the said city of Ironton, and that the state examiner, whose duty it is to examine the report of the said city clerk report that the plaintiff had taken money from the city divers and many times and plaintiff avers that said statement and every part thereof is false and untrue.

Another matter claimed by Paul to be malicious, defaming and libelous, was contained in another paragraph and follows:

"We wonder what became of those exonerating charges against the ex-clerk. It's pretty hard to exonerate a man when the evidence is in black and white, shown in the examination of the city books."

Meaning that an examination of the books of the city had shown that the plaintiff had unlawfully taken and appropriated money to his own use while he was clerk of council. He says that defendants knew that the matters printed were false and untrue and says that he is damaged in the amount of $10,000, for which amount he asks judgment and the costs of the case.

WOMEN PERMITTED TO MAKE OWN ORGANIZATION

CHILLICOTHE, Aug. 24.—The following well-known Democrats were elected executive committee at the meeting of the central committee at the offices of Claypool & Claypool yesterday afternoon: F. A. Stacey, chairman; Harriet S. Claypool, M. Hinegan, John Kellhofer, Clarence H. Sears, Carl P. Orr, F. C. Seerest, Claude H. Schaeffer, Walter H. Dunlop, Otto Treitschler, J. Robert Gunning, Bernard H. Kallie, Walter W. Boniger, James Bain and W. Allen Scott.

This committee will meet in the very near future and organize.

The central committee organized by electing J. Robert Gunning, as chairman, with Richard Divine as secretary.

The matter of placing women on the committees was considered, and it was finally decided to let the women have their way as usual and be permitted to make their own organization without any dictation from the men because they will necessarily have to abide by it anyway, and why go to work in framing up an organization that may not be pleasing to them and meet with their wishes. The committee side stepped these possibilities with much design as well as thoughtfulness.

"Listen Lester" Co. May Appear Here

Manager Fred N. Tynes late last night had hardly recovered from a shock he received earlier in the evening when he received a telegram from John Curt, one of the big theatrical magnates in New York and owner of the "Listen Lester" Company.

"Could we do any business in Portsmouth on Friday, September 3, and two shows on Saturday, Sept. 4, Fred Heider and Earl Hight tell me they are from your city. Answer immediately."

The above message almost knocked Mr. Tynes off his feet. Recovering his equilibrium he got busy and if it is possible he will book this famous company two days. The company could show in the Millbrook Casino or in the High School auditorium.

Fred Heider and Earl Hight are anxious to show their theatrical wares before home folks and last night they wired Frank Stanton as follows: "Get busy and book us in your town. Get a barn or a tent or a hall of some kind. We want Portsmouth people to see our show."

Mr. Tynes and Mr. Stanton are hopeful that they will be able to book the company, but the prospects are not very bright. Of course the Camels of the High School auditorium are large enough, but they would do much and the company may feel a real engagement. It opens a week's engagement in Minneapolis on Labor Day.

Style Is the Life, the Vital Spark

In a suit of clothes. No two men are exactly alike. You have arms, legs, back, chest, shoulders and ideas of your own. You can hardly expect to be fitted by some garment made to fit a dozen, hundreds or thousands of other men. Style Forecast for fall and winter Shoulders will be wider; there will be less shape in the waist with small hip effect. This is termed the "athletic cut." Trousers will be narrow in legs and have wider bottoms, mostly without cuff.

Fashionable Fabrics
Dark colors, quiet patterns in black, blue, brown and gray modest plaids and pencil stripes will predominate.

In keeping with this forecast we have on display one of the choicest assortment of pure wool fabrics it has ever been our pleasure to show. We can furnish you with a fall and winter suit or overcoat which will be a pleasure to wear, which will make you feel glad when you meet old friends or make new ones. Make your selection now.

WAVERLY GARAGE BURNS

A loss, estimated at $10,000, was caused by fire of unknown origin at Waverly Monday evening when the Waverly garage and livery was almost completely destroyed, the building being gutted by the flames, only the brick walls being left standing. The fire department had a difficult fight to prevent the flames from spreading to adjacent buildings.

The blaze started in the vaulting department in the front part of the building and was discovered about six o'clock by a young man who drove up to the garage to get a supply of air for the tires of his machine. The fire quickly spread to two barrels of oil nearby and the entire building was soon in flames and burning furiously. There were close to 20 automobiles in the garage at the time but all were taken out except one which, was owned by G. W. Robinson, who conducted the livery barn, which occupied the rear part of the building. Mr. Robinson saved his horses and vehicles but lost a large quantity of feed on the second floor. The first floor of the part occupied by the livery barn was only slightly damaged.

A spectacular feature of the conflagration was the explosion of a large air tank which was sent high in the air and came down on the roof of an adjoining building, crushing the roof.

The loss is fully covered by insurance, Mr. Waverly said Tuesday morning.

Commission Men Fight New Order

KANSAS CITY, MO., Aug. 24.—Injunction petitions against Edwin T. Meredith, United States secretary of agriculture, will be filed in federal court here and in Washington. It was announced today by I. N. Watson, attorney for the Kansas City live stock exchange. The petitions will ask that Mr. Meredith be restrained from regulating brokerage rates among live stock commission men here. Commission men here recently increased their brokerage charge and were given until tomorrow, under an order issued by the secretary of agriculture, to abandon the new rates and return to the old brokerage charges. The increase amounts to 15 percent, live stock commission men say.

To Renovate Sun Theatre

Manager Fred N. Tynes of the Sun Theatre has returned from Cincinnati, where he looked features for his theatre. He stated last night that this is his last week at the Sun theatre as it will be renovated next week, as the Sun will take over the house again on Labor Day, Monday, September 4. After this week Mr. Tynes will devote all his time to the extensive improvements being made in the Columbia.

Fred Hilton Is New Manager Of Sun Theatre

Friends of Fred Hilton will be pleased to learn that he will return to Portsmouth and on Monday, September 4, will take charge of the Sun theatre on Gallia street. He has long been identified with the Sun in his theatrical ventures and no doubt will conduct the Sun on successful lines. Mr. Hilton was here several years ago and is no stranger to Portsmouth theatre-goers.

So Say We All, Freddie

Fred N. Tynes, who is just home from Cincinnati, says the catch Eddie Housh made last Saturday in Red Bank was the greatest he ever saw on a ball lot. He says Housh ran to the scoreboard and hauled in Konechey's long smash with one hand. "It was a marvelous catch and Housh is in a class by himself as an outfielder," Mr. Tynes said last night.

MAN, CLAIMING THIS CITY AS HIS HOME, GIVES BAD CHECK FOR CATTLE, ARRESTED

The Mr. Sterling, Ky., Advocate of cattle interest recently said: A man giving his name as R. C. DeBoe, and claiming Portsmouth, Ky., as his home, posing as a cattle dealer, and who had been in this city several times in the past, was arrested in Richmond last night charged with giving bad checks for cattle bought here Monday and was brought to this city and lodged in jail. It seems that shortly after his arrival he met J. W. DeBoe, an aged cattle man of Morgan county, who had been coming to this city for years, and bought 45 head of cattle from him, giving a check in payment on a Portsmouth bank for $2,525.00. The stranger then stated to Mr. DeBoe that he desired to purchase quite a few more and got him and John Gearhart, of Rowan county, to act as his agents. After securing all the cattle he wanted for which he gave checks amounting to $5,600.00, he stated he wanted to take only steers back with him and instructed his agents to sell off all the heifers which was done to the amount of $2,025.00 and the checks, mostly on Richmond banks, were turned over to the stranger. At this juncture, Mr. DeBoe became suspicious and had a local bank to telegraph Portsmouth where it was found Westfall had no account and had never been heard of. The matter was then put in the hands of Chief of Police Tipton, who, upon investigation, learned "Westfall" had made good his get-away, leaving the unsold portion of his cattle here, knowing that he would endeavor to get the checks cashed, a majority of which were on Richmond banks, the chief telegraphed that city to be on the lookout and his arrest was made in that city shortly thereafter. Chief Tipton was returned to this city this morning and lodged in jail. He is said to be one of the smoothest crooks that has hit this city in a long time but he certainly ran against a snag when he tried to get out of the net laid by Chief Tipton. DeBoe's loss will probably reach $1,000.

In an interview with Westfall he stated he had no intention of swindling anyone as he knew where he could dispose of the cattle for an $800 profit and had hoped to sell them and have the money in bank to meet his checks. He further stated he expected to reimburse Mr. DeBoe for all his losses. The city directory here does not contain the name of R. C. Westfall, who possibly spent a short time here before moving onto Mt. Sterling.

DRAWS FINE

George Doerr, who was picked up by New Boston police when he was sleeping off a jag Saturday night, drew a fine of $200 when given a hearing before Mayor Davis Monday.

Plead Not Guilty

Pleading not guilty to charges of manufacturing whiskey in violation of the prohibition law, at their preliminary hearing Monday afternoon, Neils Siddham, aged 32 years, and Jesse Roberts, aged 30 years, were bound over to the United States grand jury by Judge William McKinney after $1000 bond each.

The men were arrested in a raid staged by Sheriff Hickey and deputies Sunday night, Siddham being taken at his home at Jackson Fork.

Moore township, and a unique still constructed from a steel oil barrel with a two inch gas pipe for a "worm" was seized together with a large quantity of corn meal mush and fermented apples while Roberts was apprehended at a house at 1019 Washington street where he was operating a still, according to the officers, who confiscated the outfit. The accused men both furnished bond and were released from custody.

Sends Car Into Curb To Save Woman And Child

William Buckles, merchant, Selotown, Va., figured in an automobile accident early Monday evening when his new Buick machine crashed into the curb on Gallia street, just east of Lincoln, the rear right wheel being badly damaged.

According to Mr. Buckley, he had the alternative of hitting a woman and child or going on the curb, and chose the latter.

When he applied the brakes, the rear end of the car swung around, and before he could gain control, the crash came, he said. The machine was taken to a garage for repairs.

Fire Chief Lester and Deputy Marshal John Henry hurried to the restaurant in the fire truck, and caught the three men after a merry chase. They will be given a hearing before Mayor Davis today.

A. G. Grant, George Hall and G. S. Smith, all of Huntington, were charged given by three men arrested at New Boston, charged with stealing a watermelon from a colored restaurant keeper on Lakeside, New Boston, Monday evening.

Fire Chief Lester and Deputy Marshal John Henry hurried to the restaurant in the fire truck, and caught the three men after a merry chase. They will be given a hearing before Mayor Davis today.

CHILD HIT BY AUTO

Harry, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Staton of Oak Hill, was injured about the lower part of the body, when he was knocked down by a touring car on the main street of the village, Monday.

The machine was driven by Jess Bates of Jackson, and was traveling at a slow rate. The child with his mother had come out of the postoffice, and seeing his father across the street, ran directly in front of the car.

Fire Chief Lester and Deputy Marshal John Henry hurried to the restaurant in the fire truck, and caught the three men after a merry chase. They will be given a hearing before Mayor Davis today.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as it can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, shiny and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few cents is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

250 Forest Fires

VANCOUVER, B. C., August 24.—More than 250 separate fires in the district south of the Campbell river, have been reported within the last few days. Some of these are still raging today. It was reported here, causing the destruction of thousands of feet of timber, particularly in the Still Water district, which are said to be a vast area of forest.

Get Away From One Man Lead, Says Harding

ought not to be a one-man lead, but a one-star drama of modern civilization. I want to commend the policy of each and every one having his part to play, and we all must play with enthusiasm in order to perfect the whole production.

"We have been drifting lately under one-man lead, and I am sure the American people are going to welcome a change of the bill. For the supreme offering we need the all-star cast, presenting America to all the world."

The nominee's reference to Americanism was made in expressing his appreciation of the faithfulness with which the state power is portrayed in "The Slush Fund."

Wondering About The Morrow

"There is no kingship in this republic," he said, "but thoughtful Americans are wondering about the morrow. Is our civilization secure? Every human being wishes for a better morrow than today."

"Some of our people lately have been wishing to become citizens of the world. Not so long since I met a daughter of Virginia, who would have been justified in boasting her origin in the Old Dominion and uttering her American pride, but I was shocked to hear her say 'I am no longer an American. I am a citizen of the world.' Frankly, I am not so universal. I rejoice to be an American, and love the name, the land, the people and the flag."

Predict Ten Cent Sugar

In support of his statement that the decline will continue, Langan produced a circular from the McIntosh Brokerage Co. of Chicago addressed to the trade, quoting prices in raw sugar. The circular was dated August 10.

FUTURES DECLINE

The bid on raw sugar futures for September delivery was $10.25 a hundred pounds, against $10.45 asked, compared with the previous close of $10.75 bid and $10.85 asked. There is a gradual decline on futures for delivery beginning in October and ending in May. The figure quoted for May is $9.20 a hundred bid; $9.30 a hundred asked; previous close, $9.35 a hundred bid; $9.50 a hundred asked. The same prices are quoted for February, March and April.

Reports from Washington and elsewhere say that there is 15 per cent more sugar in the country than ever before, Langan pointed out. The United States beet crop will be 30 to 40 per cent larger than ever before. European production is increasing. Imports from Java are increasing because high prices in the United States is causing sugar to flow here.

DEMAND DECREASING

"Supply has increased tremendously, while demand has decreased by households refusing to buy sugar at high prices," said Langan. "The result is lower prices and they will continue to drop with the beet sugar crop coming on and the cane crop still to be harvested. The only thing that could justify the statement that the price of sugar has reached its low mark is the assumption that speculation will continue to control the market. That will be impossible because the thing that has had much to do with the present drop—lightening of money for speculative loans—will prevent a recurrence."

Langan anticipated Monday that the next federal grand jury may be called upon to consider considerable data on his collected.

From another source, it was learned that Ohio farmers who raise sugar beets, are anticipating continued declines in sugar prices. They say that the drop will continue until fall at least, so that the refiners will not be forced to pay high prices for the beets. Existing contracts in Ohio call for sale of beets at $9 a ton computed on a basis price of 11 or 12 cents a pound for refined beet sugar. For every cent a pound over the basic price received for sugar, the farmers are to receive

Poles Trap Two Armies

ery. The commandant of the garrison has been replaced by new French and Italian troops.

WILL REFUSE RECOGNITION

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Great Britain will refuse recognition to the Russian Soviet if it does not withdraw its demand presented as a part of the peace terms at Minsk for a proletarian army in Poland. This has been decided upon by Premier Lloyd George and Giotiti of Great Britain and Italy who have been meeting since Sunday at Lucerne, Switzerland. A statement given to the press in that city yesterday by the two premiers declared they had resolved to defer resumption of diplomatic relations with the Moscow government until it withdrew what was described as "this sinister proposal."

Presentation of this clause in the terms laid before the Polish delegates at Minsk after M. Kameneff, Soviet representative here, had announced nothing important would be added to the peace conditions made public by him in this city last week, was denounced as a "gross breach of faith" in the premiers' statement.

Ultimatum Sent To Moscow

It was said that negotiations of any kind with a government, which "so lightly treats its word" become difficult, if not impossible.

It is understood here that a virtual ultimatum has been sent to Moscow by the two premiers, whose decision relative to recognition of the Bolshevik government is viewed as approval of the stand made against that step by Premier Millerand of France. The premiers indicated the allies would secure to Poland the use of the corridors south of Danzig, and would, if necessary, use troops to carry out their plans in this region.

Commencing To Agree On Something

PARIS, August 24.—The French foreign office announced today that the government regarded the new attitude taken by Premier Lloyd George and Giotiti concerning Soviet Russia and Poland as due entirely to the American note to Italy.

The premier's attitude was expressed in the note they sent France from Lucerne yesterday in which they stated they were in accord with the United States and France that Poland would endanger her independence if she accepted the Soviet terms.

The communication of the British and Italian prime minister was answered by the French foreign office with a note indicating pleasure that they expressed the same views with regard to the Polish situation that the French did.

Reads Like Old-Time German Report

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Rosa Luxemburg's report in the regions of Lomza about 75 miles northwest of Warsaw and Bialystok, about 45 miles northwest of Brest-Litovsk, are engaged in heavy fighting against advancing Polish legions, according to an official statement issued yesterday in Moscow and received here today.

In the Brest-Litovsk region there is no change in the situation, the statement says, while further south in the neighborhood of Vladimir-Volynsk, and near Lemberg the battle continues.

Eastern G. O. P. Leaders Confer

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Republican leaders of 11 eastern states were here today to attend a two-day conference with Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, to discuss campaign matters. Included among the members of the national committee were J. Henry Roraback, Connecticut; T. Coleman DuPont, Delaware; George W. Ryan, Florida; Guy W. Campbell, Maine; John W. Weeks, Massachusetts; Charles D. Hilles, New York; John M. Morehead, North Carolina; Earl S. Ringler, Vermont; and C. B. Stamp, Virginia.

The state chairman from each of the states as well as the vice chairman, all of whom are women, were also included among the representatives at the conference. A similar conference will be held in Chicago September 1 and 2 for the middle western states, Mr. Hays announced.

At the opening of the conference, Mr. Hays cautioned his assistants not to allow over confidence to lead them into error of neglecting the small details of their campaigns. "While there will be no question regarding Republican success," Mr. Hays said, "there must be no let-up of campaign activities until election day."

The point must be covered so well that afterward there may be no cause for regret.

At the opening session, Mr. Hays outlined the purpose of the conference and introduced Fred W. Tipton, national chairman, former Representative from the Georgia R. McEver, national secretary and other party leaders. After an executive session a mass lunch was served.

With 150 teachers registered from all parts of Scioto county the Scioto County Teachers' Institute is now in full swing in the Glenwood High School building in New Boston.

At this morning's session, C. H. Public Instruction, Columbus, delivered the State Department of Education an able lecture on "James Whitcomb Riley, the Hoosier Poet," reading in an inimitable manner several poems from Riley, one of America's most beloved poets. Mr. Teach is a fine portrayal of poetical characters and made a decided hit with the audience of teachers.

After a short recess spent in renewing acquaintances and enthusiastic conversation, the second speaker of the morning, Dr. M. A. Leiper, head of the English department of Western State Normal, Bowling Green, Ky., talked upon "Teaching Children to Think."

Mr. Albert Bonner was appointed chairman of the resolutions committee made up of Leslie Allen, Carl Ash, Vernon Smith, Anna Kaneuse, Stella Barney and Mrs. Mamie Erwin.

At the afternoon session Mr. Teach again took the platform and delighted his audience with "Jenn Valgren, His Life and Work," reading a number of the author's selections.

Dr. Leiper gave some of his experiences in the "teaching game," in which the county teachers found much advice.

Mrs. Margaret Quinn Finney presided at the piano, while Miss Gertrude Davidson led the singing.

John Portman of Lafayette, Pa., Western State, Emma Stiller, Port Washington, Pa., and Miss L. A. B. Jones, Ohio State, Warren, Ohio, were also present.

Miss L. A. B. Jones, Ohio State, Warren, Ohio, was also present.

The men were arrested in a raid staged by Sheriff Ricker and deputy Sunday night. Stihman being taken at his home at Jackson Fork.

Sends Car Into Curb To Save Woman And Child

William Buckley, merchant, Seaboard, figured in an automobile accident early Monday evening when his new Buick machine crashed into the curb on Gallia street, just east of Lincoln. The rear right wheel being badly damaged.

According to Mr. Buckley, he had the alternative of hitting a woman and child or going on the curb, and chose the latter.

When he applied the brakes, the rear end of the car swung around, and before he could gain control, the crash came, he said. The machine was taken to a garage for repairs.

Accused Of Stealing Watermelon

A. G. Grant, George Hall and G. S. Smith, all of Huntington, were the names given by three men arrested at New Boston, charged with stealing a watermelon from a colored restaurant keeper on Lakeside, New Boston, Monday evening.

The machine was driven by Jess Bates of Jackson, and was traveling at a slow rate. The child with his mother had come out of the postoffice, and seeing his father across the street, ran directly in front of the car.

Coconut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Mulford coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulford coconut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few cents is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

250 Forest Fires

VANCOUVER, B. C., August 24.—More than 250 separate fires in the district south of the Campbell river, have been reported within the last few days. Scores of these are still raging today.

It was reported here, causing the destruction of thousands of feet of timber, particularly in the Still Water district, which are said to be a vast sea of flames.

WAVERLY GARAGE BURNS

A loss, estimated at $10,000, was caused by fire of unknown origin at Waverly Monday evening when the Waverly Valley garage and livery barn was almost completely destroyed. The building being gutted by the flames, only the brick walls being left standing. The fire department had a difficult fight to prevent the flames spreading to adjacent buildings.

The blaze started in the vulcanizing department in the front part of the building and was discovered about six o'clock by a young man who drove up to the garage to get a supply of air for the tires of his machine. The fire quickly spread to two barrels of oil nearby and the entire building was soon in flames and burning furiously. There were close to 30 automobiles in the garage at the time but all were taken out except one which, was owned by G. W. Robinson, who collected the livery barn, which occupied the rear part of the building. Mr. Robinson saved his horses and vehicles but lost a large quantity of feed on the second floor. The first floor of the part occupied by the livery barn was only slightly damaged.

A spectacular feature of the conflagration was the explosion of a large air tank which was sent high in the air and came down on the roof of an adjoining building, crushing the roof.

The loss is fully covered by insurance. Mr. Waverly said Tuesday morning.

MAN, CLAIMING THIS CITY AS HIS HOME, GIVES BAD CHECK FOR CATTLE, ARRESTED

The Mr. Sterling, Ky., Advocate of last latest recently said: A man giving his name as R. C. Westfall, and claiming Portsmouth, Ohio, as his home, posing as a cattle dealer, and who had been in this city stopping at the Days boarding house, was arrested in Richmond last night charged with giving cold checks for cattle bought here Monday and was brought to this city and lodged in jail. It seems that shortly after his arrival he met J. W. DeLoe, an aged cattle man of Morgan county, who had been coming to this city for years, and bought 45 head of cattle from him, giving a check in payment on a Portsmouth bank for $2,250.00. The stranger then stated to Mr. DeLoe that he desired to purchase quite a few more and got him and John Gendhart, of Rowan county, to act as his agents. After securing all the cattle he wanted for which he gave checks amounting to $3,500.00, he stated he wanted to take only steers back with him and instructed his agents to sell off all the hoppers which was done to the amount of $2,025.00 and the checks, mostly on Richmond banks, were turned over to the stranger. At this juncture, Mr. DeLoe became suspicious and had a local bank to telegraph Portsmouth where it was found Westfall had no account and had never been heard of. The matter was then put in the hands of Chief of Police Tipton, who, upon investigation, learned "Westfall" had made good his get-away, leaving the unsold portion of his cattle here. Knowing that he would endeavor to get the checks cashed, a majority of which were on Richmond banks, the chief telegraphed that city to be on the lookout and his arrest was made in that city shortly thereafter. Chief Tipton was at once notified and Westfall was returned to this city this morning and lodged in jail. He is said to be one of the smoothest crooks that has hit this city in a long time but he certainly ran against a snag when he tried to get out of the net laid by Chief Tipton. DeLoe's loss will probably reach $1,000.

In an interview with Westfall he stated he had no intention of swindling anyone as he knew where he could dispose of the cattle for an $800 profit and had hoped to sell them and have the money in bank to meet his checks. He further stated he expected to reimburse Mr. DeLoe for all his losses.

The city directory here does not contain the name of R. C. Westfall, who possibly spent a short time here before moving onto Mr. Sterling.

Country Butter

Is GETTING SCARCER every day. Practically all our best grade butter is already engaged — over a hundred pounds each week. But we can take on a few more customers. If you want good, clean, fresh, wholesome butter and eggs from the VILLAGE STORE this winter when they are scarce and practically unobtainable, we strongly urge you to get your name on our list THIS MONTH for REGULAR DELIVERY, as we feel obligated to take care of regular users, first. Become one of these regular users. Make your arrangements at once.

A Telephone Message

Discouraging — that's the word — when you try and try to get your party over telephone — THE VILLAGE STORE — to leave an order. But, it's worth making the effort to GET us. YOUR RESPONSE to our weekly ads pays you in dividends of Saving, but, better still, in the supreme satisfaction of Fresh, Delightful Foods. It is TRUE that the Food Producer and the Ultimate Consumer meet at the Village Store. CALL and if you don't get us — 4500-R — CALL our Representative in the city — Mrs. Penstemon — 507-Y.

MRS. CASE GOES THIRTY MILES TO GET TAN-LAC

Thinks It Most Wonderful Medicine In World And Would Go 100 Miles Rather Than Be Without It, She Says — Gains 16 Pounds.

morning with a dull, tired out feeling that lasted me through the day. I felt so weak and listless that my housework was a drag to me. I could hardly get out energy enough to cook a meal and if I started out to sweep my house I would have to stop and rest a number of times before I got through. It took about all the strength I had to climb a flight of stairs and I would reach the top almost completely exhausted.

The Tanenhaus System
"Stores Of Better Service"

Miss Joyce plays the role of Agatha Winchester, who has been tried and acquitted of murder in Nashville, Tenn., and who changes her name to Anne Wharton and starts a new life in a Long Island town.

Here she falls in love with and gains the affection of a fine, high-minded character, and is in a fair way to win happiness when a creature who has known her in the past, appears and attempts to force his attentions upon her by means of the threat of exposure.

The woman is swayed by many emotions, which become complicated when she discovers that the blackmailer, Alan Woodward, has begun to turn his eyes upon the daughter of the man she loves.

Anne finally defeats the blackmailer by a clever ruse, and by fearlessly facing her problems.

"I have to go thirty miles for Tandax, but I would go a hundred rather than be without it, for I think it's the most wonderful medicine in the world," said Mrs. Eleanor East, of Gowatch, Pa., while visiting recently at 644 Phillips Ave., Akron, Ohio.

"When I began taking Tandex I only weighed a hundred and thirty five pounds and now I weigh a hundred and fifty one."

"I had suffered for three years from indigestion and other troubles my appetite was so poor that actually
I could not eat much in a whole week as I run out now at one meal, since beginning Tandex. I had severe pains in my sides, back and chest and awful spells of dizziness."

"My sleep at night was very much broken and I always woke up in sweat. I was very much grateful to my neighbors who persuaded me to try Tandex for stomach troubles. I am an entirely different person. My appetite is wonderful, and everything agrees with me, so that I have just been building up right along."

"I am feeling much better and distressed and sleep soundly every night and wake up in the morning feeling fine.
My housework is actually a pleasure to me and I can run up and down the stairs the same as I could when I was a girl."

"I can tell how Tandex was helping me, my husband began taking it and it is doing him a world of good too. He and I both say, Tandex is the only medicine in the world for us."

Tandex is sold in Portsmouth by Fisher and Strech and leading drug lists in every town.

THE ONE CERTAIN REMEDY

The peculiar condition of three and a half per cent bonds selling at a considerably greater price than four and a quarter, all of the war issues. And even a more striking contrast were two per cent government bonds above par while the four and three quarters were substantially below.

Reasons for these variations in price, in the first instance, are that the three and a half per cent bonds have some exemptions as to taxes that the four and a quarter do not, and are more desirable in the terms of years.

The two per cent are preferable because they have a condition that allows banks to use them at par for currency issues.

This condition is the basis for the argument that congress should bring all war bonds to par by attaching a like condition to them.

Probably that is true, but such action might create a situation that would be far worse than the present, gross inflation of the circulating medium and money becoming cheaper, with prices of commodities generally soaring beyond the skies.

It is regrettable that war bonds are below par, because in the main they were originally invested in from purely patriotic motives and the plain of some holders that the sellers, who were acting from equally patriotic motives that they would soon after the advent of peace go above par, is shown to have been mistaken. The different results from that forecast, however, arises, in the main from the purchasers themselves. Bonds are at a discount not because there is an actual depreciation in either their value or their basic security, because ordinary ways and habits did not prevail and are not prevailing among the people. In other words, the unparalleled era of extravagance and speculation upon which the nation has adventured is the prime cause. Millions upon millions of bonds have been used in buying bonds, many times more have been used in buying stocks that tempted with the prospect of larger returns. This has led to throwing of vast quantities of them upon the open markets as to create a supply far in excess of normal demand.

Take last week by way of showing how the market is glutted. Wednes was one of the small days thereon and yet the bond sales totaled over five million dollars. That meant for the six days fully thirty millions. In an other way, the sum of the sales for a year are larger than the entire war issue. With such a situation it is inevitable prices should be depressed.

In considering the matter, however, let us hold to this unalterable fact: If we are still holding on to our war bonds they are still the best of all securities. The government promise written in them is unbroken and will remain unbroken. There is no disappointment, no false expectation as to possible returns. The interest is paid twice annually, as promised, and when maturity comes the principal will be paid in full, dollar for dollar.

There can be no sound doubt that before the bonds reach maturity they will go above par. All that is necessary to bring that about is for the present holders to resolve "to freeze on to them," and keep frozen. Those that have held on are, in the aggregate in much better position as to profits than those who parted with them for a luxury that meant an ever enlarging expense, or investment in enterprises that "guaranteed" fabulous profits that never materialized.

Yes, the certain remedy, that has no doubtful incidents attached, to bring bonds back at par, is to appreciate them at their actual value and hold on to them.

We thought the Poles and Bolsheviks were engaged in a bloody war, but it looks like they were in a running match, seeing which can go back the fastest.

How can one have patience with a war in which he has to spell such monstrosities as P-o-l-e-s and B-o-l-s-h-e-v-i-k, and it's worse for you have to try to pronounce it.

Sure the rest of the world doesn't matter to us. American ships, sailing to Argentina are put to heavy losses, because, owing to a sympathetic strike at Buenos Aires they are unable to get a return cargo.

Lodge says Wilson is in control of America's relations with Poland. That is true, just as true as that no matter what Wilson does, Lodge will find fault with it.

New-York - Day - By - Day

BY O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The early morning visit John McGraw made to the famous theatrical clubhouse in the Hotel Horley has proved a noticeable bit of gossip for the district. In this instance the Lion refused to be down with the Lamb and the scandal has thundered into the District Attorney's office and resulted in a raid on some choice liquor that was being surreptitiously removed from the club.

McGraw, the scrappy Giant leader, has quite a public record. He has fought in many battles from New York to Cuba but so far as the word of eye-witnesses go he has never won a fight. In fact it is said he has a brace of trained leeches at his upturned apartment ready to render first aid to the hottest critics.

William Ford, the actor, who confesses his rights left him sent McGraw into retirement for several days. McGraw has received more first page publicity over the incident than any stage celebrity since that accorded Fannie Brice when her husband Nicky's exploits were a fortnight sensation.

The affair at the Lamb is being led. The entire organization fumbled the ball. The members tried to treat the newspaper man with a haughty indifference. A "We're-the-Lamb-gooner" sort of laughter, such a repetition of the wrong way and you merely speed up production.

The club walls fairly rocked the next few days with exposure. There have been rumors that several clubs in the theatrical district have been something like the Rattling Nelson Grill at Jack's recently. The Lamb has a worthy membership. But it must clean house now to resume its rightful place along with the Players and the Elms. The fight started in the Lamb, it was stated, because of the language used in the presence of the chairmen who were polishing the mosaic floors.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

LINDSEY HEARS FROM HER FIANCE AND MAKES A NEW MALE FRIEND

Had several letters today from America. Two from my boy, and they made me feel so happy. He is well and working hard, and making plans and lots of money for "his little girl," as he calls me! And he promised me that all the beauties that I was so busy seeing over here now would be as nothing compared to what he is going to show me, in the heart of the Rocky mountains, on our honeymoon. Nothing to beat the frenzy that I came through on my way here, darling," he wrote, "and as for success, and lights (the two things that I had raved about from here in my last letters to him), well, if you can find anything to make you weep with wonder and delight, more than the sun dipping behind one of the snow-capped mountain peaks, or several of them, at sundown, and painting the mountains and valleys all the colors that the heart of man loves and craves for—then I'll say that you have discovered Paradise, and this that I write about is only a resting station on the way!" Grand description, isn't it?

That is enough to make any girl feel like flying with happiness and most of all I loved the way he told me he missed me. Jack is really far more peevish than most people give him credit for. But he is such a modest chap that he does not care to advertise this fact, like some of the people I know, and so is often counted as one of the "ordinary" mortals—or some such creature. However, I should worry. He is mine, or on the way to.

BILLY WHISKERS

BY FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

The next morning, bright and early, the porter came down to Billy's room with a queer looking box made of heavy slats. One side of the box was off and the porter carried it in his hands. Getting the box down with the open side towards Billy, the porter put an extra touch of carrots in it, and Billy, never having seen anything like this before, walked right in and began to eat his breakfast upon which the porter quickly slipped on the side of the box and nailed it tight. Billy did not realize that he was trapped until the porter and another man whom he called lifted the box and began to carry it up the stairs. Then Billy was angry in earnest. He jumped and jerked as much as he could and nearly threw the box downstairs by his bouncing. As soon as they got up on the level ground, however, the porter and the other man began to shake the crate as hard as they could, so that in place of Billy doing the bouncing, he was being bounced until he had plenty of it and was glad to be down on the floor of the crate and hold still, while he was being carried to a big dry that stood in waiting.

While it was being loaded on the dry, Mr. Brown and Frank came out in the courtyard to see him. "Isn't he a beauty, papa?" said Frank. "And he behaves himself, so nicely, too. I've been down to see him every day and he's as nice and quiet as can be."

"I don't know," said his father, shaking his head. "I don't believe that a goat able to stir up as much trouble as he did back in the village where he bought him will be anything but a scamp goat to the end of his days. I'm really sorry that I bought him. It's going to cost a lot of money, too, to send him by express from here to Havre and to pay his passage over to America. I have a big notion to turn him loose!"

When Billy heard that he was frightened, and turning his solemn eyes around to Mr. Brown, he

As far as pure intellect is concerned, Leo Kamenef, who recently outdrew the British government, the terms upon which Russia must make peace with Poland, must rank among the chief intellectual forces of the bolshewist movement.

Only thirty-seven years old, with his black mustache and beard Kamenef looks very much older than his age. Like the majority of his colleagues, he is a Jew, his real name is Leonid Kamenef. He was born of rich parents, and under the old regime was a "hereditary" honorary burglar.

A graduate of Moscow University, he studied his Socialistic tendencies during his student days, and like many Russian students came into collision with the police he was a member of the first Brest delegation, and has written a book on this much-discussed treaty. After the first peace he was appointed bolshewist ambassador to Vienna, but was unable to proceed to his post owing to his arrest by the Finns, who kept him in prison for some months. Today he fills an important role as president of the Moscow soviet. He is a man of theories rather than a man of blood, and is more moderate in his views than the majority of his colleagues.

SPECULATORS CAUGHT IN CRASH; SUGAR PRICES WILL TUMBLE

10 Cent Sugar Is Predicted

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—Sugar prices have not touched bottom, but are certain to drop to lower levels, with the market heavily glutted with stocks far beyond the normal demand, it was announced at the department of justice today. Ignoring appeals by refiners and sugar wholesalers for a further slump in prices officials said no possible action could be taken to relieve sugar dealers who have overbought and are now losing heavily.

Speculators and others caught in this crash must bear the losses resulting from their speculative activities," said Assistant Attorney General John Crosby, in charge of profiteering prosecutions.

Speculators Are Telling
"Speculators who bought at a high price expecting still higher prices to prevail, are the only ones yelling for our help," Crosby said. "We note the consumers are not doing any kicking."

The department of justice today advised consumers against hoarding of sugar, or attempts to overstock at the present prices. Those who buy sparingly to meet their usual needs probably will be rewarded later by the saving expected through lower prices, officials considered. It is significant that Cuban raw sugars, for delivery in January and succeeding months are being quoted at approximately 12 cents a pound.

Government commercial experts studying the sugar drop, now are convinced that the sugar shortage scare created several months ago was largely artificial and that prices reached unprecedented levels through the manipulation of the speculative element.

ganda designed to save the hides of big holders of sugar who face financial losses as a result of the decline in price of sugar, is the language in which Maurice Langan, secretary of the Ohio fair price commission characterized statements purporting to come from Columbus jobbers advertising the public to buy sugar now before the price goes back up.

"Our advice and the advice that is being given out all over the country is for housewives to buy no more sugar than they need," said Langan. "There is everything to indicate that the price of sugar will continue to decline. Some are predicting that the price will be 10 cents by New Year's."

In support of his statement that the decline will continue, Langan produced a circular from the Mohrath Brokerage Co. of Chicago addressed to the trade, quoting prices in raw sugar. The circular was dated August 10.

FUTURES DECLINE

The bill on raw sugar futures for September delivery was $10.35 a hundred pounds against $10.45 asked, compared with the previous close of $10.75 bid and $10.82 asked. There is a gradual decline in futures for delivery beginning in October and continuing in May. The figure quoted for May is $9.25 a hundred asked; $9.30 a hundred asked; previous close, $9.35 a hundred bid; $9.50 a hundred asked. The same prices are quoted for February, March and April.

Reports from Washington and elsewhere say that there is 15 per cent more sugar in the country than ever before, Langan pointed out. The United States best crop will be 10 to 15 per cent larger than ever before. European production is increasing. The crop from Java are increasing because high prices in the United States is causing sugar to flow here.

DEMAND DECREASING

"Supply has increased tremendously while demand has decreased by housewives refusing to buy sugar at high prices," said Langan. "The result is lower prices and they will continue to drop with the best sugar crop coming on and the cane crop still to be harvested. The only thing that could justify the statement that the price of sugar has reached its low mark is the assumption that speculators will continue to control the market. That will be impossible because the thing that has had much to do with the present drop—lightening of money for speculative loans—will prevent a recurrence."

Langan indicated Monday that the next federal grand jury may be called upon to consider considerable data on job collecting.

From another source, it was learned that Ohio farmers who raise sugar beets, are anticipating continued declines in sugar prices. They say that the drop will continue until fall at least so that the refiners will not be forced to pay high prices for the beets. Existing contracts in Ohio call for sale of beets at 10 a ton computed on a basis price of 11 or 12 cents a pound for refined beet sugar. For every cent a pound over the basic price received for sugar, the farmers are to receive a certain amount more a ton for their beets. In other words the lower the existing prices of sugar the less refiners will have to pay for beets.

Hughes May Not Get Back On Ticket

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 24.—Kear W. Hughes, Idma, who was nominated on the Democratic ticket for judge of the supreme court, lost term, and resigned from the ticket three days afterwards, may not be able to withdraw his resignation, as has been hinted by some Democrats.

If he does decide he wants to run and cannot recall his withdrawal, the only way he could get on the ticket may be by appointment by the Democratic state central committee.

According to Secretary of State Smith today, precedent has been set in rulings that a candidate may not recall his withdrawal from the ticket after he has filed a withdrawal with the secretary of state as Hughes has done.

There has been quite a little talk here among Democrats of urging Hughes to take his place on the ticket.

ALLIES AGREE ON THE POLISH SITUATION

PARIS, August 24.—The French foreign office announced today that the government regarded the new attitude taken by Premier Lloyd George and Gladstone concerning Soviet Russia and Poland is due entirely to the American note to Italy.

The premier's attitude was expressed in the note they sent France from London yesterday in which they stated they were in accord with the United States and France that Poland would endanger her independence if she accepted the Soviet terms.

The communication of the British and Italian prime minister was answered by the French foreign office with a note indicating pleasure that they expressed the same views with regard to the Polish situation that the French did.

Reads Like Old-Time German Report

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Russian Bolshevik forces in the regions of Lomza about 75 miles northeast of Warsaw and Bialystok, about 65 miles northwest of Brest-Litovsk, are engaged in heavy fighting against advancing Polish legions, according to an official statement issued yesterday in Moscow and received here today.

In the Brest-Litovsk region there is no change in the situation, the statement says, while further south in the neighborhood of Vladimir-Volynsk, and near Lemberg the battle continues.

Water Thrown On Inmates To Balk Flames

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Eight persons were injured in a fire which trapped more than a score of families in a five story East Side tenement house early today, only quick work by firemen and police prevented a heavy loss of life as the flames swept the building like a whirlwind.

Two men were seriously injured when the flames forced them to leap from a third floor window. The heat was so intense that firemen played streams of water on men, women and children as they crowded the fire escapes to keep them from being burned to death while awaiting rescue.

Burn Nationalists Property As Murder Reprisal

LISBURN, Ireland, Aug. 24.—The burning of Nationalist property here continued until after last midnight. Among the buildings destroyed was the Catholic parochial hall.

Virtually all nationalists have left town in face of the loyalist reprisals for the murder of Police Inspector Swaney Sunday. As the reprisals proceeded last night every house still occupied, with the exception of the one in which lay the body of Inspector Swaney, flew the union jack, word having gone forth that failure to exhibit the flag would be taken as evidence of disloyalty.

ANTI-SUFFS WILL FIGHT RATIFICATION TO THE LAST

NASHVILLE, TENN., August 24.—With certification of Tennessee's ratification of the federal suffrage amendment held up by a court order, suffrage and anti-suffrage leaders today were preparing arguments which they will present at the hearing on the temporary writ of injunction issued by Judge Langford.

No date has been fixed for the hearing, but it was believed in some quarters it would be held tomorrow or Thursday.

The petition of anti-suffragists, the court's order has been extended to restrain legislative as well as state officials from certifying the legislature's ratification of the suffrage amendment to Washington. "Until a hearing on the restraining order is held, it was generally agreed, nothing further can be done toward insuring women of the nation a vote at the November elections."

Suffragists today expressed confidence that the injunction would be dissolved within the next few days. The opposition, on the other hand, declared that if it lost the initial court skirmish it would carry an appeal, if necessary to the United States supreme court, thus preventing certification of the legislature's action for some time.

House leaders said today that it would be impossible to transact business as long as a quorum is lacking in the house. With 77 members who opposed ratification remaining outside the state at Decatur, Ala., it was expected the house would be unable to remain in session when it convenes late today.

Eastern G. O. P. Leaders Confer

NEW YORK, Aug. 24.—Republican leaders of 14 eastern states were here today to attend a two day conference with Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, to discuss campaign matters. Included among the members of the national committee were J. Henry Roraback, Connecticut; T. Coleman Dupont, Delaware; George W. Bran, Florida; Guy W. Dannel, Maine; John W. Weeks, Massachusetts; Charles D. Hilles, New York; John M. Morehead, North Carolina; Earl S. Kingsley, Vermont; and C. B. Sloop, Virginia.

The state chairman from each of the states as well as the vice chairman, all of whom are women, were also included among the representatives at the conference. A similar conference will be held in Chicago September 1 and 2 for the middle western states, Mr. Hays announced.

Orangemen In U. S. In Session

CHICAGO, Aug. 24.—The supreme grand lodge of the United States of the Loyal Orange Institution opened its first convention in four years today with delegates from every state present.

"We Orangemen here in the United States hold that the Sinn Fein movement is purely a democratic concern of the British empire and that the United States has no more right to interfere than the British empire would have in our relations with the Philippine Islands," said George T. Lennon, New York, secretary, who has just returned from the international meeting at Belfast, Ireland, where the loyal orange institution expressed itself opposed to the Sinn Fein movement in Ireland and in favor of a union with England.

LISTED AS INDEPENDENTS
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF., August 24.—Presidential electors of the National Farmer-Labor, or third party, cannot be listed under their official party designation on the California presidential ballot in November, Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan announced today. Any Farmer-Labor electors, he said, will have to be listed under the independent "I" designation.

Cox To Leave On Four-State Speaking Tour

DAYTON, O., Aug. 24.—Governor Cox today closed up his affairs here for his departure tonight on another speaking tour which will take him into four states, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Connecticut and New York, and which is expected to intensify the controversy over his recent charges that a $15,000,000 "rush fund" was being raised for the Republican campaign.

The governor will speak tomorrow afternoon at Princeton, Ind., and in the evening at Evansville, Ind., but he is not expected to present evidence to substantiate his charges until later during his trip. He will speak Thursday night at Pittsburgh; Friday at New Haven, and Saturday at New York. The questions of contributions, however, is expected to figure largely in his two addresses tomorrow as well as later speeches.

THE ONE CERTAIN REMEDY

THE peculiar condition of three and a half percent bonds selling at a considerably greater price than four and a quarter, all of the war issues. And even a more striking contrast were two per cent government bonds above par while the four and three quarters were substantially below.

Reasons for these variations in price, in the first instance, are that the three and a half per cent bonds have some exemptions as to taxes that the four and a quarters do not, and are more desirable in the terms of years.

The two per cent are preferable because they have a condition that allows banks to use them at par for currency issues.

This condition is the basis for the argument that congress could bring all war bonds to par by attaching a like condition to them.

Probably that is true, but such action might create a situation that would be far worse than the present, gross inflation of the circulating medium and money becoming cheaper, with prices of commodities generally soaring beyond the skies.

It is regrettable that war bonds are below par, because in the main they were originally invested in from purely patriotic motives and the plain of some holders that the sellers, who were acting from equally patriotic motives that they would soon after the advent of peace go above par, is shown to have been mistaken. The different results from that forecast, however, arises, in the main from the purchasers themselves. Bonds are at a discount not because there is an actual depreciation in either their value or their basic security, because ordinary ways and habits did not prevail and are not prevailing among the people. In other words, the unparalleled era of extravagance and speculation upon which the nation has adventured is the prime cause. Millions upon millions of bonds have been used in buying bonds, many times more have been used in buying stocks that tempted with the prospect of larger returns. This has led to throwing of vast quantities of them upon the open markets as to create a supply far in excess of normal demand.

Take last week by way of showing how the market is glutted. Wednesday was one of the small days thereon and yet the bond sales totaled over five million dollars. That meant for the six days fully thirty millions. In an other way, the sum of the sales for a year are larger than the entire war issue. With such a situation it is inevitable prices should be depressed.

In considering the matter, however, let us hold to this unalterable fact: If we are still holding on to our war bonds they are still the best of all securities. The government promise written in them is unbroken and will remain unbroken. There is no disappointment, no false expectation as to possible returns. The interest is paid twice annually, as promised, and when maturity comes the principal will be paid in full, dollar for dollar.

There can be no sound doubt that before the bonds reach maturity they will go above par. All that is necessary to bring that about is for the present holders to resolve "to freeze on to them" and keep frozen. Those that have held on are, in the aggregate in much better position as to profits than those who parted with them for a luxury that meant an ever enlarging expense, or investment in enterprises that "guaranteed" fabulous profits that never materialized.

Yes, the certain remedy, that has no doubtful incidents attached, to bring bonds back at par, is to appreciate them at their actual value and hold on to them.

We thought the Poles and Bolsheviks were engaged in a bloody war, but it looks like they were in a running match, seeing which can go back the fastest.

How can one have patience with a war in which he has to spell such monstrosities as P-o-l-e-s-a-n-y-z-i, and it's worse for you have to try to pronounce it.

Sure the rest of the world doesn't matter to us. American ships, sailing to Argentina are put to heavy losses, because, owing to a sympathetic strike at Buenos Aires they are unable to get a return cargo.

Lodge says Wilson is in control of America's relations with Poland. That is true, just as true as that no matter what Wilson does, Lodge will find fault with it.

New-York - Day - By - Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Aug. 24—The early morning visit John McGraw made to the famous theatrical clubhouse in the Hill Building has proved a desirable bit of gossip for the nation. In this instance the lion refused to lie down with the Lambs and the scandal has thundered into the District Attorney's office and resulted in a raid on some choice liquor that was being surreptitiously removed from the club.

McGraw, the scrappy giant leader, was quite a pugilist record. He has fought in many battles from New York to Cuba but so far as the word of eye-witnesses go he has never won a fight. In fact it is said he has a brace of trained leeches at his uptown apartment ready to render first aid at the first sign of a fight.

William Ford, the actor, who confesses his mighty left jab sent McGraw into retirement for several days, has received more first page publicity over the incident than any stage celebrity since that accented female trier whom her husband, Mickey's, exploits were a fortnight ago.

The affair at the Lambs was bungled. The entire organization founded by the members tried to treat the newspaper men with a haughty indifference. "We are the Lambs—your worst enemy," sort of laughtiness. A reporter reported the wrong way and merely speed up production. The club waits fairly rocked the next few days with exposures. There have been rumors that several clubs in the theatrical district have been something like the Hurling Nelson Grill at Jack's recently. The Lambs has a worthy membership. But it must clean house now to resume its rightful place among the Players and the Elders.

The fight started in the Lambs, it was stated because of the language used in the presence of the character who were polishing the mosaic floors.

The Diary of an Engaged Girl

LINDSEY HEARS FROM HER FIANCEE AND MAKES A NEW MATE FRIEND

Had several letters today from America. Two from my boy, and they made me feel so happy. He is well and working hard, and making plans and lots of money for "his little bird," as he calls me! And he concluded me that all the beauties that I was so busy feeling over here now would be as nothing compared to what he is going to show me. In the heart of the Rocky mountains, on our honeymoon. "Nothing to beat the scenery that I came through on my way here, darling," he wrote, "and as for sunsets and twilights (the two things that I had raved about from here in my last letters to him), well, if you can find anything to make you weep with wonder and delight, more than the sun dipping behind one of the snow-capped mountain peaks, or several of them, at sundown, and painting the mountains and valleys all the colors that the heart of man loves and craves for—then I'll say that you have discovered Paradise, and this that I write about is only a resting station on the way." Grand description, isn't it?

That is enough to make any girl feel like flying with happiness and most of all I loved the way he told "see how missed me. Jack is really far more perfect than most people give him credit for. But he is such a useless chap that he does not care to advertise this fact, like some of the people I know, and so he often counts as one of the "ordinary mortals"—or some such creature. However, I should worry. He is mine, or on the way to.

BILLY WHISKERS

BY FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

The next morning, bright and early, the porter came down to Billy's room with a queer looking box made of heavy slate. One side of the box was off and the porter carried it in his hands. Setting the box down with the open side towards Billy, the porter put an extra bunch of carrots in it, and Billy, never having seen anything like this before, walked right in and began to eat his breakfast upon which the porter quickly slipped on the side of the box and walked it right. Billy did not realize that he was trapped until the porter and another man whom he called lifted the box and began to carry it up the stairs. Then Billy was angry in earnest. He jumped and jerked as much as he could and nearly threw the men downstairs by his bouncing. As soon as they got up on the level ground, however, the porter and the other man began to shake the crate as hard as they could, so that, in place of Billy doing the housework, he was being bounced until he had plenty of it and was glad to lie down on the floor of the crate and hold his head that stood in waiting.

While it was being loaded on the day, Mr. Brown and Frank came out in the courtyard to see him. "Isn't he a beauty, isn't?" said Frank. "And he behaves himself so nicely, too. I've been down to see him every day and he's as nice and quiet as can be."

"I don't know," said his father, shaking his head. "I don't believe that a goat able to stir up as much trouble as he did look like to be anything but a scoundrel goat to the end of his days. You really sorry that I bought him. It's going to cost a lot of money, too, to send him by express from here to Harze and to pay his passage over to America. I have a big notion to turn him loose."

When Billy heard that he was frightened, and turning his solemn eyes around to Mr. Brown, he said:

HARDING RISES FROM ROCKING CHAIR TO SMOKE PEACE PIPE WITH INDIANS

Senator and Mrs. Harding on their front porch smoking peace pipes with Indian allies.

While Senator and Mrs. Harding were enjoying their front porch rocking chairs a few days ago they were startled by a war whoop and observed a group of Indians coming up the front walk. The redskins were the chiefs of twelve Indian tribes, who told of some needed reforms in Indian affairs. Senator Harding said that if elected he would try to help them. All then smoked the pipe of peace.
